

THE CHATTANOOGA DAILY REBEL.

VOLUME I.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1862.

NUMBER 71.

THE DAILY REBEL.

PRINTED EVERY MORNING MINDS RECEIVED.

BY FRANCIS M. PAUL.

Terms of Subscription.

DAILY REBEL per year	$10 00
Three Months	3 00
One Month	1 00

The Cash must accompany all orders for the paper. Shipments of private persons will receive no attention. Therefore such shipper had better note sent to us.

Rates of Advertising.

One Square of TEN LINES or less, one insertion, $1 00; and 50 cents for each subsequent insertion less than one month.

1 Mo. 2 M.	1 Mo. 4 M.	1 Mo. 12 M.
$7. 00 10. 00	10. 00 16. 00	20. 00 30. 00
10. 00 13. 00	15. 00 20. 00	25. 00 40. 00
13. 00 17. 00	16. 00 24. 00	30. 00 50. 00
18. 00 22. 00	20. 00 32. 00	35. 00 60. 00
20. 00 25. 00	20. 00 35. 00	37. 00 65. 00
22. 00 28. 00	24. 00 40. 00	45. 00 70. 00
23. 00 30. 00	20. 00 37. 00	43. 00 60. 00
24. 00 32. 00	20. 00 40. 00	45. 00 75. 00
25. 00 34. 00	21. 00 41. 00	48. 00 80. 00

* Advertisements not marked on copy for a specified time will be published one month, and one ad according to the above rates.

SPECIAL NOTICES charged for advertising.

1. Pennsylvania twelve Unionists and seven Democrats have been elected; five districts to bear from.

The Episcopal Convention have adopted by large vote, the resolutions of the Committee of None.

A rebel force stopped the steamboat Hazard at Corysville, on the Ohio River, on the 4th inst., and captured the tools, and a quantity of goods, together with a lot of negroes or board.

LATE.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Oct. 19.—Late news received here state that the Democrats have carried Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. Republicans carried Iowa.

In Pennsylvania 13 Democrats and 11 Republicans were elected.

In Ohio 12 Democrats and 5 Republicans elected—three districts not heard from. At the last Congress Ohio had 12 Republicans and 8 Democrats.

In Indiana 8 Democrats and 3 Republicans elected; in last Congress there were 8 Republicans and 3 Democrats.

In Iowa the entire Republican ticket were re-elected to Congress, and the State ticket goes Republican by 10,000 majority.

The Democratic majority in the State ticket in Pennsylvania is 10,000; in Ohio 28,000; in Indiana 8,000.

In Indiana Colfax, Dunn, and Julian are defeated. In Ohio Garfield (Republican) and Pendleton and Cox are re-elected. In Pennsylvania

Glow (formerly speaker of the House) and Hoar are re-elected.

By command of ISHAM G. HARRIS,

Gov't.

W. C. WARRINGTON,

Adj't Gen'l.

Cleveland Banner, Athens Post, Knoxville Register, and Greenville Register, etc.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 6, 1862.

I. Major John H. Hook is appointed special agent to the government to inquire into the conduct of the escaped Northern soldiers who are subject to the provisions of an act of Congress approved April 10, 1862, entitled "An act to further provide for the public defense." The enrollment of recruits for the public defense will be made in conformity to the general order of the War Department under the superintendence of Col. E. B. Banks, C. S. A., who has been detailed for that service in Tennessee.

The Judge of Ordnance is directed to furnish a sufficient number of muskets and carbines to the State of Tennessee to meet the demand of the public defense.

II. Said enrolling officers will also enroll all persons who are now serving in the field, and recruit a company competent to man a new civil service battery.

Town of their respective Counties to take and make an enrollment of all volunteers subject to the provisions of said act of Congress, the report of whom will be immediately made upon completion to Col. E. B. Banks at Knobsville, Tennessee.

III. Said enrolling officers will also enroll all persons who are now serving in the field, and recruit a company competent to man a new civil service battery.

IV. Said enrolling officers will also recruit a company to man a gunboat to be built at Knobsville, Tennessee.

V. The Governor is therefore compelled to suspend all efforts to organize a State Guard.

General Orders No. 9.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 6, 1862.

No. 8.

The necessity of sending our gallant troops who are now returning from Northern fields to the field, renders it impossible to procure arms for a State Guard.

The Confederate army now being in our midst, the authorities unanimously desire to use the trained regiments of Tennessee regiments to the maximum, and it is believed that many gallant and patriotic men are willing to volunteer, well-willing to go to the front with their friends and kindred in arms in the struggle.

The Governor is therefore compelled to suspend all efforts to organize a State Guard.

General Orders No. 6 and 7 are countermanded.

The commanding officer will be directed to the Adjutant General of the State and the Federal General will return their muster rolls to the Adjutant General of the State and report for special orders.

By command of Governor ISHAM G. HARRIS,

W. C. WARRINGTON, Adj't Gen'l.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Aug. 28, 1862.

No. 8.

The necessity of sending our gallant troops who are now returning from Northern fields to the field, renders it impossible to procure arms for a State Guard.

The Confederate army now being in our midst, the authorities unanimously desire to use the trained regiments of Tennessee regiments to the maximum, and it is believed that many gallant and patriotic men are willing to volunteer, well-willing to go to the front with their friends and kindred in arms in the struggle.

The Governor is therefore compelled to suspend all efforts to organize a State Guard.

General Orders No. 6 and 7 are countermanded.

The commanding officer will be directed to the Adjutant General of the State and the Federal General will return their muster rolls to the Adjutant General of the State and report for special orders.

By command of Governor ISHAM G. HARRIS,

W. C. WARRINGTON, Adj't Gen'l.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Aug. 28, 1862.

No. 8.

The necessity of sending our gallant troops who are now returning from Northern fields to the field, renders it impossible to procure arms for a State Guard.

The Confederate army now being in our midst, the authorities unanimously desire to use the trained regiments of Tennessee regiments to the maximum, and it is believed that many gallant and patriotic men are willing to volunteer, well-willing to go to the front with their friends and kindred in arms in the struggle.

The Governor is therefore compelled to suspend all efforts to organize a State Guard.

General Orders No. 6 and 7 are countermanded.

The commanding officer will be directed to the Adjutant General of the State and the Federal General will return their muster rolls to the Adjutant General of the State and report for special orders.

By command of Governor ISHAM G. HARRIS,

W. C. WARRINGTON, Adj't Gen'l.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Aug. 28, 1862.

No. 8.

The necessity of sending our gallant troops who are now returning from Northern fields to the field, renders it impossible to procure arms for a State Guard.

The Confederate army now being in our midst, the authorities unanimously desire to use the trained regiments of Tennessee regiments to the maximum, and it is believed that many gallant and patriotic men are willing to volunteer, well-willing to go to the front with their friends and kindred in arms in the struggle.

The Governor is therefore compelled to suspend all efforts to organize a State Guard.

General Orders No. 6 and 7 are countermanded.

The commanding officer will be directed to the Adjutant General of the State and the Federal General will return their muster rolls to the Adjutant General of the State and report for special orders.

By command of Governor ISHAM G. HARRIS,

W. C. WARRINGTON, Adj't Gen'l.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Aug. 28, 1862.

No. 8.

The necessity of sending our gallant troops who are now returning from Northern fields to the field, renders it impossible to procure arms for a State Guard.

The Confederate army now being in our midst, the authorities unanimously desire to use the trained regiments of Tennessee regiments to the maximum, and it is believed that many gallant and patriotic men are willing to volunteer, well-willing to go to the front with their friends and kindred in arms in the struggle.

The Governor is therefore compelled to suspend all efforts to organize a State Guard.

General Orders No. 6 and 7 are countermanded.

The commanding officer will be directed to the Adjutant General of the State and the Federal General will return their muster rolls to the Adjutant General of the State and report for special orders.

By command of Governor ISHAM G. HARRIS,

W. C. WARRINGTON, Adj't Gen'l.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Aug. 28, 1862.

No. 8.

The necessity of sending our gallant troops who are now returning from Northern fields to the field, renders it impossible to procure arms for a State Guard.

The Confederate army now being in our midst, the authorities unanimously desire to use the trained regiments of Tennessee regiments to the maximum, and it is believed that many gallant and patriotic men are willing to volunteer, well-willing to go to the front with their friends and kindred in arms in the struggle.

The Governor is therefore compelled to suspend all efforts to organize a State Guard.

General Orders No. 6 and 7 are countermanded.

The commanding officer will be directed to the Adjutant General of the State and the Federal General will return their muster rolls to the Adjutant General of the State and report for special orders.

By command of Governor ISHAM G. HARRIS,

W. C. WARRINGTON, Adj't Gen'l.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Aug. 28, 1862.

No. 8.

The necessity of sending our gallant troops who are now returning from Northern fields to the field, renders it impossible to procure arms for a State Guard.

The Confederate army now being in our midst, the authorities unanimously desire to use the trained regiments of Tennessee regiments to the maximum, and it is believed that many gallant and patriotic men are willing to volunteer, well-willing to go to the front with their friends and kindred in arms in the struggle.

The Governor is therefore compelled to suspend all efforts to organize a State Guard.

General Orders No. 6 and 7 are countermanded.

The commanding officer will be directed to the Adjutant General of the State and the Federal General will return their muster rolls to the Adjutant General of the State and report for special orders.

By command of Governor ISHAM G. HARRIS,

W. C. WARRINGTON, Adj't Gen'l.

EXECUTIVE HEADQUARTERS,

Chattanooga, Aug. 28, 1862.

No. 8.

The necessity of sending our gallant troops who are now returning from Northern fields to the field, renders it impossible to procure arms for a State Guard.

The Confederate army now being in our midst, the authorities unanimously desire to use the trained regiments of Tennessee regiments to the maximum, and it is believed that many gallant and patriotic men are willing to volunteer, well-willing